

TTP 115 TYPE I

REGULAR DRY, ALKYD RESIN, SOLVENT BASED, PAVEMENT LINE MARKING PAINT.

Pavement line striping paint, based on alkyd resin binder, regular dry, good performance that meets Federal Specification TTP 115 Type 1 for solvent based traffic line marking paints. Use on city-county streets, roads, parking lots, apartment complex, shopping malls where drying time is not critical but low price, low temperature dry and durability is more important.

Priced by the gallon. Packaged in 5-gallon metal pails.

Durable, proven technology, work-horse Alkyd Traffic line marking Paint that meets Federal Specification TTP 115 Type 1 for. This formulation is based on a self-curing alkyd binder; hence it dries and cures to a tough solid paint film. Being a solvent based alkyd paint it does dry slow. Good for use on parking lots, parking garages, side streets, road curbs, Airport Runway Lines were dry time is not a issue, It has good hiding power, good coverage, contains high solids and low VOC's. Being a solvent based paint, it is flammable. It is good for most substrates, except new asphalt and freshly applied seal coating. Its exterior durability, bead retention, abrasion resistance and adhesion to substrate is excellent.

- Proven Alkyd Resin Traffic Paint Formulation. Meets Federal Specification TTP 115 Type 1 for Low cost, economically priced.
- Available in White, Yellow, Blue, Black, Green and Red.
- High Solids, Acceptable VOC,
- Good coverage. 400 lineal feet per gallon when applied 4-inch-wide stripe.
- Regular Dry times. 30 mins. to foot, 45 mins. to car traffic.
- Can be applied with conventional airless spray machines that can handle solvent based paints.
- Caution: Flammable and not for use on freshly applied asphalt or seal coating.